FAMILY HOUSE POLO MATCH PRESENTED BY FIRST NATIONAL BANK CELEBRATES 39TH YEAR

Signature fundraiser to be held at Hartwood Acres on September 10 will feature an exclusive VIP Wine Tasting Experience

PITTSBURGH, PA (September 6, 2022) – Family House, a nonprofit organization that provides affordable, comfortable, and convenient housing to patients, families, and caregivers who travel to Pittsburgh for medical care, will host the 39th Annual Family House Polo Match presented by First National Bank on Saturday, September 10, 2022, at Hartwood Acres.

This year's Polo Match, presented by First National Bank, the largest subsidiary of F.N.B. Corporation, will feature a fun, festive day for all ages with fan favorites including: tailgating, shopping the Sip and Shop tent, vintage cars, and a professional polo match. All funds raised through the event directly support the mission of Family House.

"FNB is proud to again serve as the presenting sponsor of this year's Annual Family House Polo Match and bring additional awareness to the incredible work that Family House does to support and strengthen our local communities," said Ronald Donatelli, President of First National Bank's Pittsburgh Region.

Gates open at 10 a.m., activities at 11 a.m., opening ceremonies kick off at 1 p.m., and the exhibition match featuring our very own Howard Hanna Real Estate Services Pittsburgh Polo Club vs legacy #1 Cochran Potomac Polo Club, begins at 1:30 p.m.

At UPMC Health Plan Half-Time, guests are invited onto the UPMC Field to "stomp the divots." Guests are encouraged to take a commemorative photo at the UPMC Health Plan photo booth in their Polo Classic Attire. Additional activities include betting with touts, food trucks, silent auction, live music from Brassholio and Jason Kendall, and children's activities, including pony rides, games, and a meet and greet with the Sewickley Hunt hounds.

The addition of the VIP Wine Tent will feature an exclusive tasting of wines from California's Sonoma County Wineries along with charcuterie pairings. Guests will be welcomed to the private tent with a souvenir Polo glass and treated to samplings from seven wineries.

"The Family House Polo Match is a time-honored tradition for the organization and the larger Pittsburgh community. I'm thrilled to be able to host over 2,000 attendees at Hartwood Acres," says Executive Director, Jennifer March. "All funds raised on September 10, 2022 allow Family House to keep room rates low while providing a 'home away from home' for the thousands of families who stay with us each year. I look forward to stopping by all the tents and tailgates to see how everyone is celebrating this fun, special day!"

Tickets available, <https://familyhouse.org/polo/>. As always, children ages 12 and under attend for free.

Family House, Inc., is a private 501(c) (3) organization, established in 1983 to serve patients and their families seeking medical treatment in Pittsburgh. For more information, to buy tickets, or to make a secure donation, please visit www.familyhouse.org.
